

journeyou

! COVID-19 & Peru Travel

Entry requirements: Detailed information

1. To enter Peru, regardless of the country of origin, All travelers from 12 years of age and older must present, before boarding the plane, their COVID - 19 vaccination card with the complete vaccination doses, in Peru or abroad.

2. COMPLETE AN AFFIDAVIT AVAILABLE AT <https://djsaludviajero.minsa.gob.pe/dj-salud/> (72 hours before boarding the flight).

NOT VACCINATED PASSENGERS MUST PRESENT A NEGATIVE PCR TEST (MAX. 72 HOURS BEFORE TRAVELING). Children under 12 years old only need to be asymptomatic to board.

People with symptoms when arriving in Peru shall be in mandatory isolation. These measures are in force from February 28, 2022.

✈ Transportation In Peruvian Territory

- All Peruvians and foreigners 18 years of age and older traveling inside the country on interprovincial buses (for example, the Lima – Paracas, and Cusco – Puno routes) or 12 years of age and older traveling commercial flights must prove their two doses of vaccination. This is also required to board the train and bus to Machu Picchu.
- Passengers over 40 years old, must show they are fully vaccinated and with a booster (that is, three doses), in case they are eligible to receive it according to current protocol.
- If they don't have the complete vaccination scheme, they need to take a molecular test (PCR) and have a negative result no more than 48 hours before the trip.

✈ Entrance To Closed Spaces*

In the same way, to enter closed spaces (restaurants, stores, supermarkets, museums, cultural centers, among others), all Peruvians and foreigners 18 years old and over must prove that they have both doses of the COVID-19 vaccine.

Passengers over 40 years old, who are eligible to receive a booster according to the current protocol, must present their vaccination certificate with the three doses. In this case, this is not substitutable by any tests.

Please take this into account before your trip.

Visas & immigration control

- Argentinian, Paraguayan, Ecuadorian, Uruguayan, Brazilian, Bolivian, Venezuelan and Chilean citizens: admission by presenting their national identity card.
- Other countries in the Americas and most of Europe: passport in force.

Upon entry, the immigration authorities will determine the maximum number of days you will be able to stay in the country. They usually grant 90 days for tourists. If you exceed the days of stay listed on your passport, you will have to pay a penalty on your departure.

More info click here

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages/Peru.html>

Quick facts

- Passport must have six months validity at time of entry.
- Passport required one page for entry stamp.
- Tourist Visa is free, issued at the port of entry.
- If you carry more than $10,000 USD must be declared at the time of entry.